

Grimmer Book Fair

November 17-21

That chill in the air means it's Fall Book Fair time at Grimmer! Join us in the Arctic, where it's always cool to chill with a good book and where students are sure to find a blizzard of good books to keep them reading all winter long! Students will shop during their library time the week of 11/17. The Book Fair will also be open as follows:

- Thursday, November 20th from 1:45-4:00
- Friday, November 21st from 8:45-1:00

Students can shop with cash or eWallet. Please see the separate flier for information about e-Wallet. E-Wallet is a great alternative to sending your student with cash. Simply set an amount using a credit card. You can even ask family members to contribute to your student's account. No more worries about students carrying, forgetting or losing money!

Help build our classroom libraries! You can also gift money to any teacher's e-Wallet account, allowing them to purchase books for their classrooms.

Volunteer! Help create a fun, easy experience for our students by being a book fair volunteer! No experience necessary! Go directly to the volunteer sign-up here: Fall Book Fair Volunteers or scan the QR code here:
